

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Unit 6: Prepositions, Conjunctions, and Interjections

DIRECTIONS:

Two papers are required to complete this L.A. connection. On notebook paper, Lesson 39 write the "Commonly Used Prepositions" twice. Complete your heading and use good penmanship. The second paper is this worksheet.
Prepositions and Prepositional Phrases Do exercise 1 #1-15.

A preposition is a word that relates a noun or a pronoun to another word in a sentence. Prepositions of more than one word are compound prepositions.

The magazine on the table just arrived.

Darlene will perform the solo instead of Retta.

COMMONLY USED PREPOSITIONS

about	at	by	like	over	up
above	before	down	near	since	upon across	behind	during	of	through	with after	below	for	off	throughout	within against	beneath	from	on	to	without along	beside	in	onto	toward among	between	inside	out	under around	beyond	into	outside	until

COMPOUND PREPOSITIONS

according to	aside from	in front of	instead of across from	because of	in place of	on account of along with	far from	in spite of	on top of ① Put parenthesis around each prepositional phrase.

► Exercise 1 ② Underline each preposition or compound preposition.

The development of flea markets in the United States is an outgrowth of the bazaar.

1. A bazaar is an Asian marketplace held inside the city.
2. Here, traders in small stalls or shops sell miscellaneous goods.
3. Some bazaars are located along a single, narrow street.
4. Others spread throughout a number of streets.
5. For example, there might be a street of coppersmiths beside two streets of booksellers.
6. One section could house a huge covered bazaar with four hundred shops.
7. The bazaar originated in early times.

- agreed to come to the house and make an offer.
5. When Dad contacted two antique dealers and told them about the dozens of items, they container inside the shed.
4. Divine into our task with new enthusiasm, we searched through every box and cent of the money we generated.
3. Mrs. Jenkins smiled at us and said that along with our pay we could have twenty percent finds.
2. Three porcelain dolls and a wooden chess set of Renaissance design were among our best finds.
1. After the discovery of many antiques, we suggested that she sell the items.
- Sadie Jenkins hired Heloise and me to clean the large shed behind her house.
- ◀ Exercise 2 Draw one line under each prepositional phrase. Draw a second line under each object of the preposition.

The pitcher in the rear is filled with sweetened tea.

A prepositional phrase is a group of words that begins with a preposition and ends with a noun or pronoun called the object of the preposition.

15. Aside from the large crowds, many one-of-a-kind items can be found throughout the bazaar-laden streets.
14. Some shopkeepers might expect the tourist to bargain over the cost instead of paying a fixed price.

13. A lucky sightseer might find an antique beneath the many wares or trinkets at one of these unique shops.
12. Tourists visit the city to see its museums and palaces, along with its bazaars, industry, trade, and culture.
11. Istanbul, called Constantinople from A.D. 330 to 1453, is Turkey's leading center of

10. It is the only major city located on two continents—Asia and Europe.
9. One city known for its colorful bazaars since ancient times is Istanbul, Turkey.
8. During that period, it served for gossip and trade.